

2013: SantaCare

Why did "care" become a four-letter word when attached to a 5 letter name?

Caring for each other is a fundamental principal of all the major religions.
So why is it so difficult to make our societal institutions reflect this simple idea?

We apologize for missing our holiday project deadline this year, but given the recent high profile precedent for this kind of failure, we don't feel so out of place.
