CSC 1051 Questionnaire

Name: ________________________________________________________________

Nickname (if preferred): ________________________________________________

Why are you taking this course? You can include more than one reason. You can answer any way you like ... possible answers are things such as "I ♥ computers", "it is required for my major", "for fun", "I need a 4 credit science course", "I heard this is an awesome course", ...

Describe your computer programming background. (This course does NOT assume any background, so it is ok to say “none”).

Describe any other pertinent experience you have had with computers.

How confident are you about this course? Very Somewhat Not very

Explain: