Project 7 Rubrics

Coding:
- Shoe class
  - instance data
  - 2 constructors
  - methods
- Client code
  - Provide clear instructions to the user for how to communicate with the program
  - Program runs successfully, follows specifications
  - Properly formatted output

Coding Conventions
- Clear and informative comments including your name and purpose of program
- Comments for each method describing its purpose
- Indentation of code
- Descriptive names for variables
- Indentation of code

Test cases:
- Show experimental runs for all subjects

Report
- Include the source code (Verify that no lines are cut off. If source code contains lines that are too long, decrease the font size before copy/pasting to report)
- Include sample run (one suffices)
- Include a brief statement about your experience on project
- Discuss any known errors in program

Extras
- Implement challenge for the bored part

Comments: